The Christmas Spirit in Action

Christmas is a time of joy, celebration, and giving. But for many families, the holiday season can be a time of stress and financial hardship. That's where Valerie Hansen and her Christmas Rescue Unit step in.

Valerie Hansen is a single mother of three who has dedicated her life to helping families in need. In 2009, she founded the Christmas Rescue Unit, a non-profit organization that provides toys, food, and other essential items to families who are struggling during the holiday season.

Valerie's story is an inspiring one. She grew up in a poor family and often went without during the holidays. But she never forgot the joy that Christmas brought her, and she was determined to make sure that other families could experience that same joy.

The Christmas Rescue Unit has helped thousands of families over the years. Valerie and her team of volunteers work tirelessly to collect and distribute toys, food, and other essentials to those who need it most.

Valerie's story is a reminder that the Christmas spirit is alive and well. Her dedication to helping others is an inspiration to us all. This holiday season, let's all do our part to make a difference in the lives of those who are less fortunate.

How You Can Help

There are many ways to support the Christmas Rescue Unit. You can donate toys, food, or money. You can also volunteer your time to help with the organization's various projects.
