In the wake of the attack, the FBI launched a massive investigation into the events leading up to and including the storming of the Capitol. The investigation has uncovered a wealth of evidence of Trump's involvement in the plot to overturn the election.

Trump's War on Justice

The FBI investigation is just one of many ways that Trump has come under fire for his attacks on the justice system. Trump has repeatedly attempted to interfere with investigations into his own conduct, and he has repeatedly attacked the FBI, the Department of Justice, and the courts.

Trump's attacks on the justice system are part of a larger pattern of behavior in which he has sought to undermine the rule of law and establish himself as a dictator. Trump has repeatedly praised authoritarian leaders, and he has expressed admiration for their ability to suppress dissent.

The Threat to American Democracy

Trump's war on justice is a threat to American democracy. The rule of law is essential for a free and fair society, and Trump's attacks on the justice system are an attempt to subvert the rule of law and establish himself as a dictator.

We must not allow Trump to succeed in his war on justice. We must defend the rule of law and protect our democracy.

The Evidence Against Trump

The FBI investigation has uncovered a wealth of evidence of Trump's involvement in the plot to overturn the election. This evidence includes:

- Telephone records showing that Trump was in contact with the leaders of the mob that stormed the Capitol on January 6.
- Video footage showing Trump inciting the mob to violence.
- Testimony from witnesses who say that Trump was directly involved in planning the attack on the Capitol.

This evidence is overwhelming, and it is clear that Trump was responsible for the attack on the Capitol.

Trump's Attempt to Obstruct Justice

In the wake of the attack on the Capitol, Trump has repeatedly attempted to obstruct justice. Trump has tried to interfere with the FBI investigation, and he has pardoned several of the rioters who stormed the Capitol.

Trump's attempts to obstruct justice are a clear indication of his guilt. Trump knows that he is guilty of inciting the attack on the Capitol, and he is trying to prevent the FBI from uncovering the full extent of his involvement.

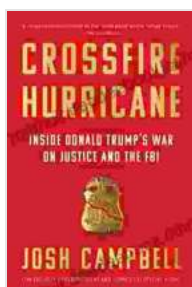

The Need for Accountability

Trump must be held accountable for his crimes. He must be prosecuted for his role in the attack on the Capitol, and he must be removed from office.

We cannot allow Trump to get away with his crimes. We must defend the rule of law and protect our democracy.

: The Future of American Democracy

The future of American democracy is at stake. Trump's war on justice is a threat to the rule of law and to our democracy. We must not allow Trump to succeed in his war on justice. We must defend the rule of law and protect our democracy.
