As the vibrant hues of spring paint the skies, families across Vietnam prepare to gather for one of the most cherished events of the year: Tet, the Vietnamese Lunar New Year. It is a time of renewal, joy, and a deep connection to cultural heritage. For Alice Trinh, a culinary artist and culture enthusiast, Tet holds a profound significance. Through her groundbreaking initiative, "Tet Together," she has embarked on a passionate journey to preserve the rich traditions of Tet while fostering a deeper appreciation for Vietnamese cuisine and culture.

Alice's culinary journey began at a young age, nurtured by the vibrant flavors and aromas that filled her childhood home. As she grew older, her passion for cooking and her desire to share her cultural heritage intertwined, leading her to create "Tet Together." The initiative is a platform that celebrates the beauty of Tet through immersive experiences, interactive cooking classes, and the sharing of heartfelt stories.

Tet Revisited: Unraveling the Tapestry of Traditions

Tet is a time-honored celebration that has been passed down through generations, with each ritual and custom holding deep cultural significance. Alice's "Tet Together" initiative delves into the heart of these traditions, bringing to life the stories and meanings behind the vibrant lion dances, the elaborate flower markets, and the heartfelt reunions.

Through her interactive workshops and engaging storytelling, Alice sheds light on the symbolism and significance of Tet rituals. She explains how the traditional lion dance represents strength and prosperity, while the vibrant colors of the flower markets symbolize hope and renewal. By immersing participants in these cultural practices, Alice fosters a deeper understanding and appreciation for the rich heritage of Vietnam.
