The group formed in 2003 when Blake Shelton and Miranda Lambert met at a local bar. They began playing music together and soon added Keith Urban, Brad Paisley, and Carrie Underwood to the group. The group's first album, "The Best Bride Ever," was released in 2005 and was an instant success. The album spawned the hit singles "Honey Bee" and "She's Country," which both reached the top of the Billboard Country charts.

The Best Bride Hometown Heartbreakers have released six studio albums, all of which have been certified platinum or higher by the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA). They have also won numerous awards, including five Grammy Awards, 13 Academy of Country Music Awards, and 18 Country Music Association Awards.

The group is known for their energetic live performances and their catchy, upbeat songs. They have toured extensively throughout the United States and Canada and have performed at major music festivals such as the Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival and the Stagecoach Country Music Festival.

The Best Bride Hometown Heartbreakers are one of the most popular country music groups in the world. They have sold over 25 million albums worldwide and have won numerous awards. They continue to tour and release new music, and they remain one of the most popular and successful country music groups today.
