This retelling of the classic fairytale follows the story of Ariel, a young mermaid who falls in love with a human prince. When her father forbids her from seeing him, she makes a deal with the sea witch Ursula to become human for three days. But Ursula's magic comes at a price, and Ariel must find true love's kiss before the sun sets on the third day, or she will belong to Ursula forever.

- East of the Sun, West of the Moon

This Norwegian fairytale tells the story of a young woman who is kidnapped by a white bear and taken to his castle. The bear turns out to be a handsome prince who has been cursed by an evil stepmother. The woman must break the curse by staying with the prince for a year without ever seeing his face.

- The Twelve Dancing Princesses

This classic fairytale tells the story of twelve princesses who dance every night, wearing out their shoes. Their father hires a soldier to find out where they go and what they do. The soldier disguises himself as a beggar and watches the princesses dance, but he is caught by their wicked stepmother. The stepmother tries to kill the soldier, but he escapes and returns to the king with the truth. The king rescues the princesses and they live happily ever after.

The Four Kingdoms is a unique and imaginative series of fairytale retellings that will appeal to readers of all ages. Lori E. Lopez's writing is lyrical and evocative, and her characters are complex and relatable. These stories are sure to stay with you long after you finish reading them.
