At the helm of The Skylight Room's cocktail program is renowned mixologist Charlie Carillo. With over a decade of experience in the industry, Carillo has worked at some of the world's most prestigious bars, including The Aviary Chicago and The Dead Rabbit in Manhattan. For The Skylight Room, Carillo has created a menu of classic cocktails with a modern twist.

The menu is divided into sections, such as "Sparkling Cocktails," "Tropical Cocktails," and "Classic Cocktails." Each section features a variety of cocktails made with fresh ingredients and high-quality spirits. Some of the highlights include the "Celestial Negroni," a twist on the classic Negroni made with gin, Campari, and sweet vermouth infused with Earl Grey tea; the "Hummingbird," a refreshing mix of vodka, lime, grapefruit, and mint; and the "Manhattan," a timeless classic made with rye whiskey, sweet vermouth, and bitters.

In addition to its cocktails, The Skylight Room also offers a selection of small plates, such as cheese and charcuterie boards, oysters, and shrimp cocktail. These snacks are perfect for sharing while enjoying the views of the city.

The Skylight Room is a stylish and sophisticated bar that offers breathtaking views of the city skyline. With its classic cocktails and delicious small plates, it's the perfect place to relax and unwind after a long day of exploring New York City.

Reservations

Reservations are highly recommended, especially for weekend nights. You can make reservations online or by calling the bar directly. The Skylight Room is open from Tuesday to Sunday, from 4pm to 1am.

Dress code

The Skylight Room has a dress code that requires guests to dress in "smart casual" attire. This means no athletic wear, flip-flops, or ripped jeans. Jackets are not required, but they are recommended for cooler evenings.

Location

The Skylight Room is located at 49 West 44th Street, New York, NY 10036. The bar is accessible by subway, bus, or taxi.
